

POLICE CRIME ALERT

On 4 March 2009, Police received a report of a male subject who visited a bank on the pretext of soliciting S$30 million dollars. The subject is described as a fair-skinned Eurasian male in his late forties, about 1.80m tall and of medium to heavy build. He was seen carrying a plastic bag and spoke fluent English.

2 The reconstructed photo fit image of the subject is as follows:

3 Police advise all banks and branch managers to be on the alert against this male subject. Should branch managers encounter any male subject resembling the above individual soliciting S$30 million or any other amount of money from the bank, they should remain calm and contact the police by dialing '999' immediately.
